C TO BE COMPLETED WHEN THE REGISTERED GRAVE OWNER IS THE DECEASED

To allow a burial in an existing grave the registered grave owner must complete and sign the Burial Application Form. However, the Registered Grave Owner has the automatic right to be buried in the grave. In this case the next of kin or executor of the deceased can request the opening of the grave.

TRANSFER OF OWNERSHIP

If the Registered Grave Owner is deceased and a burial is required for another person in the grave, then a transfer of ownership must be completed first.

A transfer of ownership can be complicated and each case needs to be looked at individually by a recognised and competent authority suitably qualified to advise you in law.

A Change of Ownership Form is available from your Funeral Director or from the Cemetery Registrar. This must be witnessed and signed by a Solicitor or Commissioner for Oaths prior to the burial taking place. Solicitors may charge a fee for this service.

Please note that an administrative fee of £10 is also payable to the Cemetery to cover the costs of amending the Cemetery Registers.
